FOR EXPERIENCE, BALANCE, INTEGRITY BRING BACK MARTIN !

The town board should represent ALL the people of North Salem, not just one party

Martin Aronchick: Candidate for Town Board

Martin served on the North Salem town board for one year and then, by a mere three votes, he was off! Instead of appointing someone to the vacancy left by Steve Bobolia's move to justice court, the four-member, one-party town board chose to go it alone: one party, one voice, no checks and balances, no alternative ideas. When Martin was there he had the town board on track with

- Checks and Balances and Transparency: Martin ensured open discussion, debate and ultimately consensus that better represents all points of view -- checks and balances at work.

- Social Media: Martin drafted policies to eliminate abuses and protect your privacy in the town's use of email, facebook, twitter, and other social media. They remain unadopted.

- Community Involvement: Martin spearheaded the preparation of a comprehensive vision plan for Camp Hemlock at Mountain Lakes Camp to engage as many residents as possible.

- Contract Provisions: Martin revamped town contract provisions to eliminate potential waste and liabilities

- Long-Range Financial Plan: Martin stressed the need to develop a complete, long-range, financial plan for both capital improvements and maintenance of town owned facilities - much beyond the short-term planning done annually.

- Code of Ethics: Martin stressed the need to bring the town into compliance with the filing of conflict of interest disclosure statements and updating our outdated code of ethics.

- Local Businesses: Martin coordinated efforts with the business sector to maintain the hamlet of Croton Falls as an attractive and inviting place.

As an attorney Martin has spent most of his career in public service, giving him a wealth of experience in directing the affairs of government agencies with complicated missions. He is currently managing director at Thacher Assocs, LLC.

Nancy, Jackie, Russ and Martin

Martin, his wife Nancy and their children Russel and Jackie moved to North Salem over 14 years ago. Martin is a jazz guitarist and plays frequently in town to support fundraisers and events. As an avid volunteer with a wide range of activities, Martin has a first-hand feel for what North Salem residents of all ages want.
